

Southeast Alaska Tribal CEDS

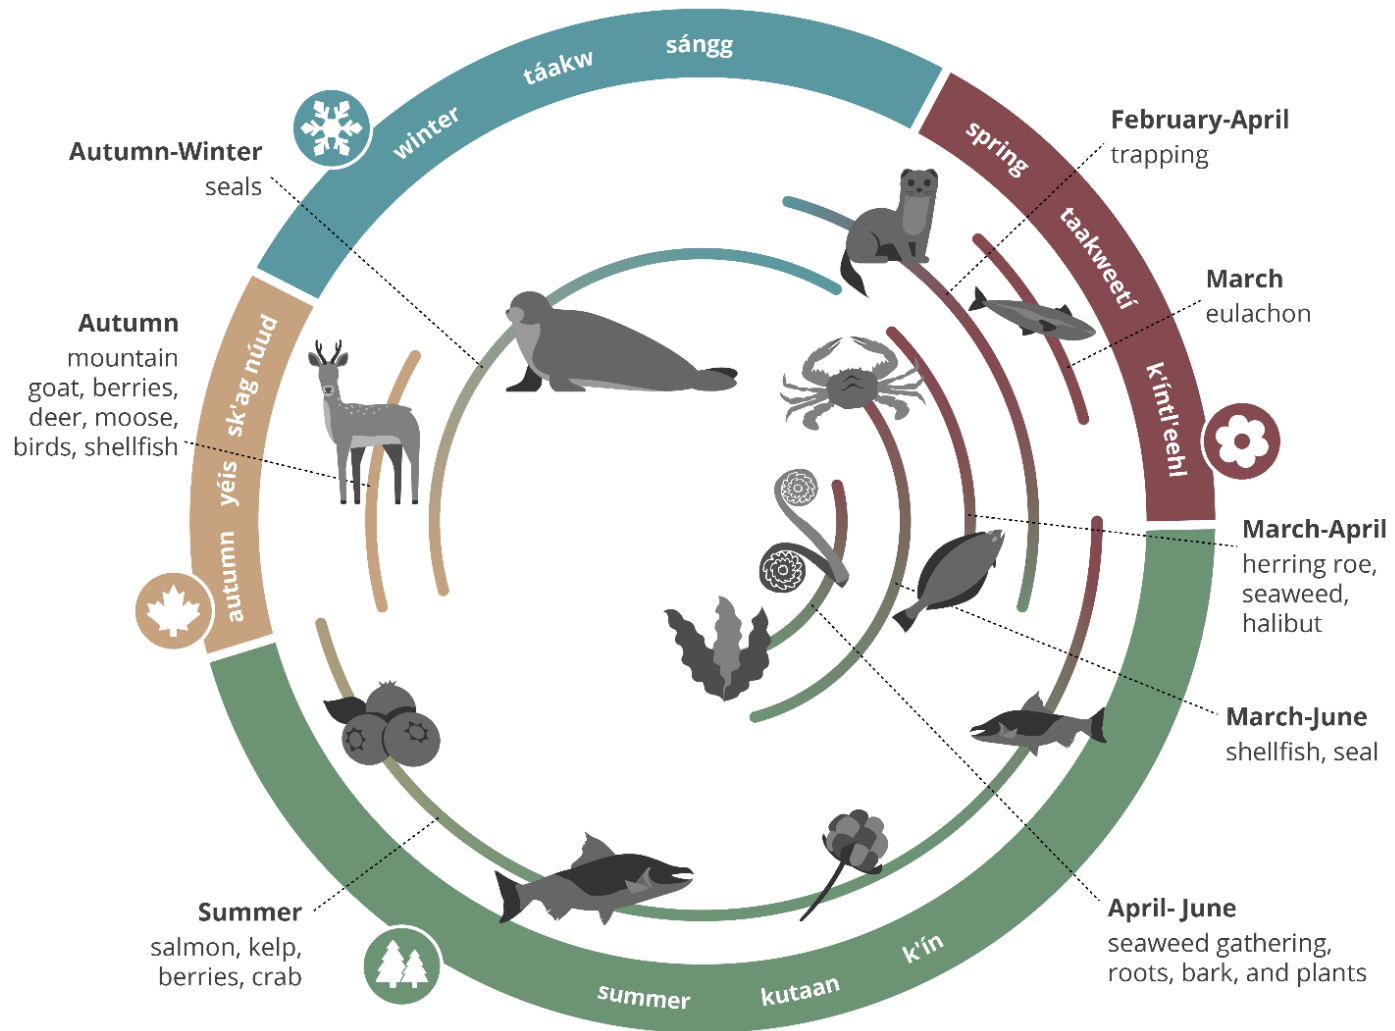

Why a Tribal CEDS?

Elevate Tribal priorities

Center Tribal demographic and economic profiles

Deepen regional collaboration

Source: Graph inspired by the work of Heeringa, K. McFarland, Cold. H. et. all. 2018 from the Environmental Impacts to Access in Interior Alaska. <https://snap.uaf.edu/tools/living-off-the-land>

CEDS Process

Engagement and Input	Surveys, partner interviews, website
Tribal CEDS Committee	Convened March 2024 (members below)
Research and Background	Literature and plan review, regional economic and demographic profiles
Plan Components	SWOT, economic vision, goals and strategies
Implementation Plan	Priorities and performance metrics

Southeast Alaska Tribal CEDS Committee Members

Survey Results and Research Align on Economic Priorities

Participation Snapshot

Economic Priorities | % Survey Responses

564

SURVEY PARTICIPANTS

21

SOUTHEAST COMMUNITIES REPRESENTED

91%

*OF SURVEY
PARTICIPANTS ARE
TRIBAL MEMBERS*

Inputs Inform Priorities & Strategies

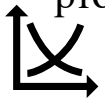

Literature Review
Other relevant regional
planning documents,
partner plans and
documents, Capital
Improvement Plans

Partner Outreach
Interviews and
questionnaires
conducted with
partner organizations

Economic Profile
Census data, industry
trends, demographic profiles, economic indicators

Tribal CEDS Committee Assembled an advisory group to inform the
Tribal CEDS
development process

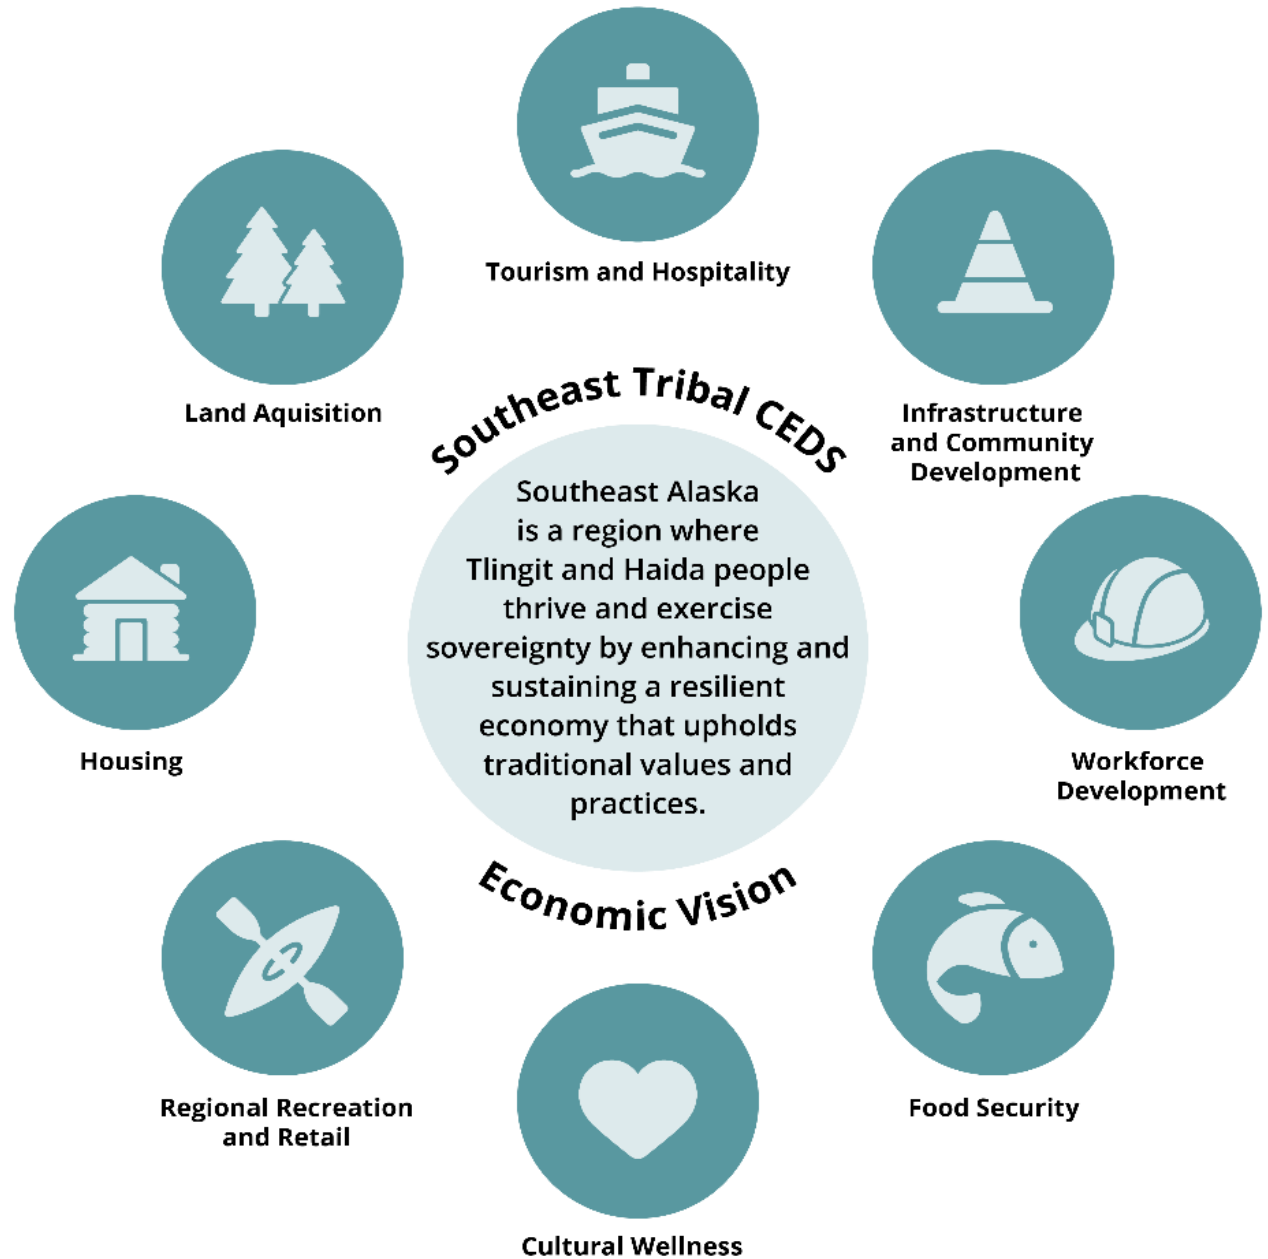

Community Outreach
Community Survey

Economic Vision & Focus Areas

“First comes healthy people
then healthy
economy.”

- Community Survey
Participant

Priority Strategies Snapshot

Tourism & Hospitality

- Support Indigenous and community-based business development and entrepreneurial opportunities in tourism and hospitality services

Housing

- Support funding and initiatives that address the top priorities identified in the 2024 Southeast Regional Tribal Housing Survey Analysis

Infrastructure & Community Development

- Invest in and build affordable energy infrastructure and systems that reduce utility costs and create workforce development opportunities.

Food Security

- Protect and revitalize subsistence and traditional food resources

Public Comment Draft Now Live!

Add your voice!

The public review draft is now live on the Tribal CEDS website for 30 days – through Wednesday October 23rd.

<https://tlingithaidaceds.com>

Gunałchéesh / Háw'aa!